Petersbourg, April 30.

THIS Court has received Advice, that Felt Marshal Lacy arrived the first Instant at Asoph with all the Flotilla from Tauroff, so that probably we shall soon hear that General has made a Descent either in the Crimea or on the Island of Tamerow, which is between the Crimea and the Cuban, where perhaps he designs to lay up some Magazines. M. Nepleuff, one of the Russian Plenipotentiaries, set out from hence the 23d Instant, and Baron Shaphiroff the 27th, and M. Volenskey will soon follow those Gentlemen. The 28th Instant being the Anniversary of the Czarina's Coronation, there was a great Appearance at Court of the Nobility and foreign Ministers, and at Night a magnificent Ball.

Vienna, May 15, N. S. There is a grand military Conference holding this Day at Laxembourg, at which all the Ministers and several of the chief Generals are present; and it is thought that the last Instructions for those Generals will be examined and agreed upon, after which they will be setting out in a very few Days. It is said that the Duke of Lorrain will set out likewise on the 28th Instant, and that the two Imperial Armies will be ready to begin the Operations about the Middle of next Month. M. Du Theil, Minister from the most Christian King, took Yesterday his Audience of Leave of the Emperour at Laxembourg, and intends to set out in eight or ten Days for France.

Vienna, May 18, N. S. His Royal Highness the Duke of Lorrain was called by the Emperour to the great military Conference held the 15th Instant at Laxembourg, which being the first Time that his Highness had assisted at any Conference, it has given the greatest Satisfaction to all the Well-wishers of the Imperial Family: Since which it is reported, that the Command of the Army in Hungary was offered to his Highness at that Conference. Count Seckendorff and Prince Hildburghausen talk of setting out on the 21st or 22d Instant at farthest.

Dresden, May 22, N. S. The Danish Envoy Baron Bernstorff, took his Audience of Leave the 17th Instant, and will set out in about three Weeks Time for Ratisbon, having already received the usual Present of 1500 Crowns. Since the Death of the Duke of Courland, this Court has agreed upon circular Letters to be written in the Name of the King, for the Continuation of the Courts of Justice in that Dutchy till another Duke shall be elected, as it was agreed upon in the last Diet of Pacification held at Warsaw. The King set out the 20th Instant for Neuhause to meet the Empress Amelia, as did likewise the Prince Royal and the rest of the Royal Family some Days before.

Berlin, May 25, N. S. On Wednesday last the Queen of Prussia came to Town from Potzdam, as did also the Princess Royal from Reinsberg. The next Day the King of Prussia passed in Review at Tangermunde on the Elbe, Colonel Bredau's Regiment of Horse. His Prussian Majesty came back to Potzdam Yesterday, and will be in Town To-morrow in the Evening; and next Tuesday are expected the five Regiments extraordinary, which come here every Year, in order to pass the Review with those of this Garrison.
